NEW YORK, Dec. 14.—Debate on the problem of world disarmament, with particular emphasis on the atomic bomb, was to continue today at the United Nations general assembly.

PA NEW OBSERVES

Emphasizing the unusual weather conditions of the present month, Charles G. Lindner, of Exeter, N. H., relates a little incident of the week. He has a small pool for fish in his back yard. On December 12, he heard considerable activity around the pool and looking out saw a couple of wee visiting children busily engaged in swishing their feet around in the pool, enjoying it just like it was summer.

Detour marks are mighty few and far between in the new Detour Bulletin for the period ending January 3, just issued by the Pennsylvania Highway Department. This bulletin is kept posted in the lobby of The News.

Ear muffs were in order about the city late Friday evening. Pa New noted. Heretofore, there has not been much occasion to wear the muffs, due to the late start of cold weather.

Pa New notes that an extra parcel post window at the local post office has been opened to expedite the mailing of the large number of packages that are being brought into the office.

While gathering greens in her yard to make up some Christmas arrangements, Mrs. Fred W. Sontag, of Miller avenue discovered forsythia in bloom.

New York Site Offered U. N. By John D., Jr.

FACING the East River in midtown New York is the $3,500,000 property which John D. Rockefeller, Jr., has offered to present to the United Nations for its permanent home. At top is shown the section between 42nd and 48th Streets and First Avenue to the river which would become the site of the world capital if the Rockefeller donation is accepted. At left is a map of the section. Certain small tracts of land in the same area would be purchased by the city of New York and added to the gift. At a moment when the United Nations was arriving at final decisions concerning headquarters, the eleventh hour offer came as a dramatic surprise. If accepted, a huge skyscraper, "city within a city" would be erected on the property now occupied largely by meat packing and slaughterhouses, parking areas, empty lots and dilapidated tenements. Labor Secretary Now Hopeful Of Wage 'Pattern'

Schwollenbach Believes Basis For Settlement Of Second Round Demands Likely

SAYS LABOR STRIFE IS NOT INEVITABLE

By PHILLIPS J. PECK
(U. N. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Dec. 14.—Government labor experts believe today that labor's second-hand wage increase demands can be settled on a national "pattern" of about 12½ to 15 cents an hour.

This expectation is understood to lie behind Secretary of Labor Lewis B. Schwollenbach's optimistic outlook on the forthcoming 1947 labor-management negotiations.

In making a prediction concerning the "pattern" of settlement, one well-informed labor official said:

"Industry must recognize that some second-round increase is inescapable. An increase of 12½ to 15 cents an hour looks like the pattern. This is a reasonable figure which should not provoke major controversy."

Arthur Mometter

The head of the house is a-wondering what kind of a Christmas 'twill be, he knows there'll be presents and plenty to eat, but he keeps on a-wondering what he will have to fork out on the first of the month for the bills that will fall like the snow, and whether the bankroll will weather the storm, as the chisel cuts into his dough. All those dresses and hats and those baubles they're bought, just what will the price be in hay, so he ponders this season as often before—it's cool, 38 today.

Charge Heavy Loss Sustained In Manchuria

U. S. Charges Soviet Occupation Resulted In Two Billion Loss To Manchuria

WASHINGTON, Dec. 14.—(INS)—United States charges that Soviet occupation of Manchuria resulted in a two billion dollar loss to that country's industry today threw a new note of discord into the settlement of far eastern peace.

The American assessment of damages to Manchurian industry was made public in a report of Edwin W. Pauley, President Truman's personal ambassador on reparations. Substantially the report charged that Soviet deprivations on Manchuria costed U. S. plans to build China to an industrial power.

Observers believed that publication of the Pauley report anticipated new maneuvers for the early drafting of a peace treaty for Japan. The report charged that:

1. During a week of resistance by Japanese forces in Manchuria to Soviet troops after Russia declared war on Japan, $858 millions of direct damage was inflicted on Manchurian industry.

2. Subsequent losses due to deterioration, looting, civil war and other indirect results of Soviet occupation may total two billion dollars.

The Pauley report admitted that it could not be determined how much of the loss was due to Soviet removals of goods to Russia. However, the report made clear that losses from this source were considerable.

old actress, regain possession of $6,000 worth of furs and jewelry which Raft had given her and then taken back "by trick and device."

Raiden is demanding $50,000 actual damages and $25,000 punitive damages.

The complaint accuses Raft and three others of personal injury, assault and battery, conspiracy to commit assault and battery and conspiracy to obstruct justice.

Named as co-defendants in the action are the actress's bodyguard, Mavis (Killer) Gray, the actress's agent, Ben Platt, and Gray's brother, Joe Gray.

On December 21, 1945, Raiden complained that the beating took place in the Doss apartment on Dec. 21, 1945. He said that by a pre-arranged signal Joe Gray seized him and "pinned my arms behind me."

Then, the complaint sets forth: "Raft put on kid gloves and punched away at my face, beat me about the nose, face, chest and arms. 'Gray let me go after Raft kicked me in the groin with his knee.'"

Raiden said that the following day he was summoned to Raft's lawyers' office, where the actress and her mother, Mrs. Daisy Doss, signed a letter discharging him as their attorney.

Immediately after that, the attorney charged, "Killer" Gray "took the girl and her mother to the train and saw to it they left the state."

The attorney said the beating was severe enough to require the services of a physician and he pictured himself as a nervous case, unable to carry on his work, because he "is still in fear of great bodily harm for himself and for his family."

Mrs. Doss is not involved in the suit. Raiden said he does not know where she or her mother are.

BYRNES PRESENTS PEACE PROGRAM TO U. N. ASSEMBLY

ing how many American and British troops are now stationed abroad.

Byrnes said America's forces abroad have been reduced to less than 550,000 men and that half the 15,000 combat troops remaining in China are under orders to come home.

In taking the wraps off American military strength abroad Byrnes warned that these troops can be supported by the atomic bomb for "many years to come," unless all nations agree to a rigid inspection-disarmament plan.

Less Than Million

Bevin said Britain's entire contingent on foreign soil now is less than a million men but he added England intends to disarm with "caution" so as not to be caught unprepared again.

Molotov was the final speaker of the session and he attacked what he termed "frenzied propaganda in favor of a new war."

Molotov continued: "A lot has been said tonight about atomic bombs. All know that atom bombs are not weapons of defense. Atom bombs are destined for foreign territories."

Molotov said the figures on American and British troops abroad "could not be comprehensive." He said the Soviet delegation wishes an answer to the question of where and what troops are abroad and where and at what bases they are stationed.

Important Decision

The Soviet foreign secretary described the disarmament resolution as the most important decision of the general assembly and one which corresponded to the interest of great and small peoples for world peace.

In his address to the United Nations general assembly, Byrnes said: "We prefer to prevent, rather than to win the next war."

He added the United States wholeheartedly supports the reduction of armaments "with effective safeguards." Among the safeguards which Byrnes recommended was one assuring that there "can be no recourse to a veto to save an offender from punishment."

Byrnes offered a six-point peace program which included:

- 1.—Priority for reduction of major weapons instead of "pistols and hand grenades."
- 2.—General, not unilateral, disarmament, with all parties keeping their pledges.
- 3.—Clear, explicit agreements for veto-less international inspection and control.
- 4.—A "Ceiling" on occupation forces in ex-enemy territories.
- 5.—Independence for "liberated" Austria.
- 6.—Cessation of the world race for arms and power.

He said "sovereignty can be destroyed not only by armies but also by a war of nerves and by organized political penetration. He said implementation of the Moscow declaration is not made easier "by loose charges or countercharges."

He said the American forces will not interfere in Chinese civil strife and said they are smaller than Soviet units in south Manchuria.

Bevin described the labor government's negotiations for withdrawal of troops from Egypt and said he hopes India's political parties will unite so British troops stationed there can go home, too.

He joined Byrnes in demanding no interference in the atomic energy commission. He said: "It cannot be dealt with on the basis of political conflict."

EXPLOSIVES CACHE IS DISCOVERED

denis, a small manufacturing plant 200 yards away and 500 homes in nearby Penn.

Cache Discovered

In a two-room cottage on the farm police found a medicine bottle and a small vial full of the explosive and caps and cord for setting it off. Under a haystack they found a whiskey bottle half full of nitro.

The cache was discovered after two alleged safecrackers were captured while attempting to rob the safe of a theater in Oakmont police reported. They said one of the bandits, Henry W. Borgen, 26, during questioning, blurted out: "For God's sake go and get the stuff before someone gets hurt."

Police said Jaworski attempted to destroy the nitro when he learned of the alleged safecrackers' capture.

Jaworski was sentenced to 12 years in eastern penitentiary in 1915 on robbery charges, police said, and was later sentenced to western penitentiary on similar charges in 1935. He was paroled in 1945, they added.

CORONER PROBES RECENT FATALITY

Nickum, C. A. Donges and Bart Richards, was as follows:

"We the jury sworn to inquire into the cause of the death of Thomas J. Morgan of 301 Edison avenue, New Castle, Pa., about 6:30 p. m. on December 7, 1946, find that Mr. Morgan came to his death from injuries caused when he was struck by the car of C. Ed Smith III near the corner of Highland avenue and Edison avenue. From the testimony presented we find that Mr. Morgan had apparently stepped out from the east curb of Highland avenue in front of a car and was hit by the Smith car as it started to avoid hitting the car ahead."

Smith Testifies

Mr. Smith, the first witness, told of how Mr. Morgan was struck. Smith stated that he was traveling north on Highland avenue, about 6:30 p. m., and as he reached a point opposite the home of Roger W. Rowland, that a car ahead of him pulled into the curb and stopped, forcing him to swing around the vehicle. As he swung toward the middle of the street, he was aware of a third and crash, and his headlight went out. He pulled over to the curb and got out of the car, when he saw a man's hat lying in the street. He then saw Mr. Morgan's body lying between the sidewalk and the curb and called for help. An ambulance was summoned, which took Mr. Morgan to the hospital, but he was found to have expired before reaching the hospital.

The driver of the other car was not learned, Smith stated. He was driving at a speed of around 20 to 25 miles per hour, he said.

Converse Branscome, Jr., told of coming down Highland avenue, just prior to the collision, when he saw a man standing in the middle of Highland avenue, apparently waiting for him to pass. After he had gotten down the street, he heard a thudding noise, and drove around the block, returning to the scene. When he saw Mr. Morgan's body, lying between the sidewalk and the west curb, and summoned the ambulance which took Mr. Morgan to the hospital.

Police Officers George Kennedy, Herman L. Richards and Ray Richards told of answering the call that there had been an accident on Highland avenue, at Edison, and of conducting an investigation, which revealed the circumstances as previously related.

LABOR SECRETARY NOW HOPEFUL OF WAGE 'PATTERN' with New England mills providing a 10-cent hourly boost.

In the automobile, steel and electrical industries—key points in the CIO's 1947 wage drive—a lot of bargaining remains to be done. The United Auto Workers Union are asking for a basic hourly increase of 23 cents.

The CIO rubber workers some time ago set their second-round goal at 26 cents an hour.

Action Of Year Ago

A year ago the steel and automobile unions started out seeking an increase of about $2-a-day, but settled for 18 cents an hour this time because the general pattern for first-round reconversion wage adjustments.

Other factors complicate the next round of negotiations. The auto workers are seeking another six and one-half cents an hour to standardize wages and provide old-age and health benefits. The Steelworkers want portal-to-portal pay.

Seek To Avoid Strikes

CIO President Philip Murray and his aides are reported desirous of avoiding major strikes next year if at all possible.

The CIO unions will enter negotiations armed with an economic report claiming that American business can afford a general wage increase of 25 per cent without higher prices.

However, they will be bargaining against the background of a new Republican Congress bent on enactment of legislation to curb crippling national strikes.

Schwellenbach said he plans to make recommendations to President Truman soon on labor legislation.

The secretary opposes compulsory arbitration devices and favors strengthening the labor department's conciliation and mediation services.

serted that Petoskey, engineer on one of the freight trains involved in the tragedy, failed to heed three amber warning signals as he approached the stalled freight.

Petoskey, who suffered severe bruises and a broken finger, maintained that he received clear signals all the way to the scene.

He told the following story of the accident, in which his fireman, Robert Keith of Toledo, and brakeman, E. J. Hughes, of Sandusky, O., were killed:

"Signal Was Clear"

"After leaving Mansfield with a clear signal we approached the signal at Lucas going down grade around a curving track. The Lucas signal was clear, showing we had a clear track to and past the next signal.

"Going around a curve just before approaching the next signal, Keith, my fireman, yelled that the fuses went on."

Petoskey explained that a fuse is a red flare meaning to stop.

"Then I could see the caboose of another train on the track ahead of us," the engineer continued.

"I threw on all brakes but knew we couldn't stop a 70-car train in that space. I told Keith we'd better go back over the tender. The brakes were on automatically.

"We both started back. Keith just behind me. He got to the rear of the tender while I climbed down the ladder.

"The about 20 car lengths away from the train ahead, I jumped and that's the last I remember until I came to in a nearby field."

Conciliators Are To Be Assigned From Pittsburgh

U. S. Conciliation Service commissioners will now be assigned through a Pittsburgh branch office, instead of the New York regional office, it was announced today.

The new procedure, companies and unions have been informed by Regional Director Ross Colwell, will provide faster service in assignment of commissioners to disputes.

The recent established conciliation service branch office is in Room 301, old post office building, Pittsburgh. Assignments will cover Pennsylvania west of the Susquehanna river, and the counties of Chautauqua, Cattaraugus and Allegany in New York.

Commissioners attached to the Pittsburgh office are William Asher, Donald Crawford, Charles Rutz, Samuel Spencer, Grover Stainbrook, Charles Ward and George Woomer. All requests for their services should be made to the Pittsburgh office.

SWITCH ENGINE MAKES WILD RUN IN CHICAGO

they were disengaged. Somehow the throttle of No. 1965 had been left open, and she steamed southeastward on her own.

Roundhouse workers futilely leaped for the cab.

Carl Lawe, in a tower, saw the 1,000-horsepower engine narrowly miss cars and coaches in the yards. Lawe flashed a warning on the intercommunication system. So, too, did Glenn Squires, unaware there was no engineer, leaped out to flag down the runaway. It roared by. Squires returned to his tower, barked an order to wreck No. 1365.

Runs Into Mail Cars

A short distance away, Guard Andy Girsch's switchman was a second too late. Down the line, William Waterman barely escaped death in a similar attempt to switch the engine.

As the engine neared the jam-packed terminal, John Breslin calculated swiftly that tracks 7 and 21 were in the clear. He yelled: "I'm throwing her on neutral 7."

An answer on the inter-com snapped back:

"For God's sake don't; there's a Chicago truck train on No. 7."

Breslin threw the switch for track 21, and prayed.

Moment later the phantom engine came to the end of her nocturnal journey in a crash of iron and steel against the mail cars. The engine and two empty mail cars were wrecked.

FISTIC BATTLE DURING HEARING IN BILBO CASE

halted by an explosion of one-sided diatribes.

Pomeroy Rep. Rocco Collins (D-Miss.) denouncing Gandy as a "liar," he knocked the witness to the floor as he told of negotiations whereby Collins was expected to line up with the Bilbo forces supporting the then Sen. W. B. Doney for re-election.

Former Secretary Located

Meanwhile, Edward P. Terry, Bilbo's former secretary who sought to avoid testifying because of alleged threats on his life, was located in Mississippi. The FBI announced that Terry was found at the Watkins Memorial hospital, Quitman, Miss. A committee subpoena had been issued and it was assumed that he would be summoned to testify.

Gandy testified that he cashed four checks totaling $25,000 made out to Bilbo by Felix T. Newton, Hattiesburg contractor, and turned the money over to Bilbo for disbursement in Doney's behalf.

AVERT STRIKE

ALLENTOWN, Pa., Dec. 14.—(INS)—A threatened transit strike in the Lehigh valley was averted today by an arbitration board ruling.

The strike, if it occurred, would have tied up bus and trolley service in Allentown, Bethlehem, Easton and dozens of nearby communities during the Christmas holidays.

Lights of an approaching truck. The car plunged through a wall and entered full-length into the Sizemore bedroom. It carried the baby's carriage ahead of it and smashed it against the opposite wall.

Mother Screams

Mrs. Sizemore said: "I looked for the baby and couldn't see her. Then I saw the handles of the buggy sticking out from in front of the car. I began screaming for her."

Sizemore, an army veteran related: "We were thrown against the wall. I picked up my wife, who was dazed. The front end of the car was against the far wall. The buggy was smashed between its front end and the wall.

"We knew the baby was dead before we got the carriage pulled away."

The Sizemore home is a remodeled filling station, 25 feet off the highway.

Society AND Clubs

WOMAN'S CLUB WILL HEAR CHOIR MONDAY

What promises to be one of the most delightful and inspiring programs of the year for Woman's club will be presented Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the auditorium of the Benjamin Franklin junior high school when the Franklin-Thaddeus choir will present the Christmas Story in song and living pictures.

Woman's Club members are looking forward to this opportunity to hear and see this portrayal of the Story of Christmas by the children of the school in costume in a skillfully blended intermingling of melody and pantomime. To this season's presentation has been added an especially designed lovely and artistic stage setting.

As an additional program feature, the audience will participate in group singing of familiar carols.

Members who wish transportation have been asked to call Mrs. G. Wilford Thomas.

Hostesses for the afternoon are Mrs. Alfred J. Robbins, Mrs. Harvey Brenner, Mrs. Carl K. Devlin, Mrs. N. J. McCluskey, Mrs. Howard Erwin, and Mrs. R. A. Bailey, Sr.

There will be an executive board meeting at the school at 1:30 o'clock preceding the program.

CONSERVATION GROUP PLANS TEA PROGRAM

Conservation-Garden department of Woman's club will meet in the home of Mrs. Frank J. Bolinger, 213 East Winter avenue, Wednesday afternoon, December 18, at 2 o'clock for a program and tea.

On the program, a playlet will be presented by a cast of junior high school students. There will be an exchange of gifts among members.

P. E. O. SISTERHOOD DINNER PROGRAM

P. E. O. Sisterhood was entertained Friday evening in the home of Mrs. J. A. McNeill, Englewood avenue, for a Christmas dinner with Mrs. S. E. Irvine and Mrs. Earl Dart as co-hostesses. Lovely table decorations were in keeping with the season.

Three readings, all appropriate to the vuletide were given by Mrs. S. E. Irvine; the widely known editorial "Is There a Santa Claus?" "A Pint of Judgement" by Elizabeth Morrow; "Lights and a Star" by Christine Parmenter.

Group singing of Christmas carols led by Mrs. Rankin Johnston, of New Wilmington, with Mrs. Carl Cramer at the piano opened the program following a short business meeting with Miss Georgianna McNeese presiding. Mrs. Carl Busch of Greenville was an out-of-town member present.

January 10 meeting will be in the home of Miss Helen Mosley, 425 East Leasure avenue.

Teach Tot Meaning of No." I wrote her somewhat as follows.

You don't need scolding. You need help. Apparently you have tried very hard to guide that child well. But like thousands of other conscientious mothers you have been led astray by much that you have read or heard on child rearing.

Effective Punishment
You admit that you lose your temper and resort to punishment, even physical punishment. But you fool around and try useless measures so long before you do anything and you have no consistent program. A mere ten minute period of isolation from the other children shames them is just a mockery. It should be 20 or 25 minutes to be effective and it should be immediate and without exception.

What amazes me is that the problems you relate occur chiefly at your home and right in our presence. If you wish to get good results quit your vain attempt at explaining and do as follows: Connect strong discomfort instantly in that youngster every time you see her striking, scratching, kicking and the like, except, perhaps, in clear instances of self-defense. Be vigilant. The instant she is the aggressor bare her bottom and smack her with your bare flat hand on her bare thighs. Be sure it is a lusty singling slap, no flea-bite and never on her armoured bottom. Make sure this effective pain always follows the offense immediately. Praise her heartily for every instance of consideration for the other children. Read to her a great deal and continue to show her abundant affection when she is good.

E. NEW CASTLE

R. W. CLASS DINNER

R. W. Class of Grace Bible church had a Christmas dinner in the church basement Thursday evening with covers laid for 14. Committee in charge was Mrs. Ruth Watson and Mrs. Jessie Karri. Mrs. Delma Sanford led devotion.

As a special feature a gift exchange was held and games were chief diversion with prizes going to Mrs. Helen Craig and Mrs. Donna Davis.

Next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Delma Sanford on January 9.

MISSIONARY MEETING

Harmony Baptist Missionary Ladies met Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Georgia Johnson, Ellwood road. Devotions were led by Mrs. Ruth Moore. A turkey dinner was served to 14 ladies at noon. Quilting was the pastime and a gift exchange later. Next meeting will be January 17.

FAREWELL HONOR

Fourteen members of the family gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sanford recently as a farewell for Mrs. Homer Houck, who departed Thursday morning to spend the winter months in San Francisco, Calif. Gifts were received by the honoree to open on Christmas Day.

A delightful luncheon was served by Mrs. Earl Collins, Mrs. Marion Boudien and Miss Shirley Bleakney. Mrs. Houck will reside with her son, Mr. and Mrs. Ira Houck in San Francisco.

PERSONAL MENTION

William Oliver Wink of Akron, O., is improving after undergoing an operation Sunday in the Jameson Memorial hospital. He is the brother of Robert Wink, of West Washington street extension.

Spanish-American War Veteran Killed

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 14.—(INS)—William J. Scully, 75-year-old Spanish-American war veteran, was killed today by a speeding hit-run automobile in northwest Philadelphia.

Less than an hour later, police arrested a suspect identified as Jacob Shtatman, 51, a truck driver. The car was found abandoned near the scene.

Police said Scully, in ill health, had wandered from the home of his sister. The car struck him at an intersection, breaking every bone in his body.

LET'S MAKE THIS CHRISTMAS A PLEASANTER, SAFER ONE

Downtown the streets are crowded with shoppers, jamming the stores and sidewalks in a pleasant sort of maelstrom, shopping for the things they are going to give the family and friends.

The streets are clogged with cars on their way here and there, the highways are crowded with folks who want to enjoy Christmas Day just like you. Don't be the one to break their trips home with an accident.

Let's make this Christmas a pleasant one, but more important, let's make it a safe one. Wouldn't it spoil your own Christmas to know you had consigned some other citizen to a hospital bed on the day of days?

A Merry Christmas means a Safe Christmas.

Music Club Chorus To Sing "The Messiah" Sunday Night

Will Be Eighth Annual Event

Program To Be Presented In Auditorium Of First Methodist Church

MRS. W. J. CALDWELL
CHORUS DIRECTOR

Sunday at 8 p. m. in the First Methodist church, "The Messiah" will be presented to the New Castle people for the eighth consecutive year. This year the Music Club chorus feels confident will be the best performance it has ever given. The singers have worked hard and faithfully and with the inspired leadership of their director, Mrs. William J. Caldwell, they anticipate giving a truly magnificent performance.

The solos will be sung by Miss Lucille Bauch, of Pittsburgh, soprano; Mrs. George E. Strehler, of New Castle, contralto; Robert E. Lytle, of Sharon, tenor; and D. Marshall Jones, of Youngstown, bass.

At the organ will be Edwin Lewis, of New Castle, and at the piano, Mrs. Richard K. Allen, of New Castle.

Mrs. C. W. Cameron is manager of the chorus and great credit is due her in handling all arrangements and business in connection with the chorus. Miss Jane Kyle, librarian, has charge of copies of the oratorio and she, with Mrs. Cameron and E. C. Gattrell, have charge of the robes. Miss Maude Mitchell is treasurer of the chorus.

Mrs. W. E. Horner, Mrs. G. G. Horcher and Tom Wland are in charge of decorations. Herbert S. Kirk is radio publicity chairman and Mrs. James W. Moorehead is in charge of newspaper publicity.

Chorus accompanist is Miss Ruth Weir and her faithfulness and patience have helped the chorus achieve the excellent effects for the performance apparent at rehearsals.

Ministerial Association Sponsor

Each year the Ministerial Association sponsors this performance of sacred music. Rev. Burr R. McKnight, D.D., will give the invocation and announcements will be given by Rev. A. E. Simon with the benediction to be pronounced by Rev. H. H. Grove.

Mrs. George E. Strehler is president of Music Club.

Ushers will be Mesdames Winifred Scott Evans, Robert Fleming, John P. Love, and Mrs. S. Glenn McCracken, the Mesdames Evelyn Bernine, Kathryn Bittner, Mary R. Clarke, and Lena Richards, and the regular ushers of the First Methodist church.

Change Time Of Southside Service

Since the American-Welsh people have been invited to share in the community carol singing, the congregation of the First Congregational church will rehearse immediately at 11:30 o'clock Sunday morning, December 15, after the preaching service which begins at 10:30 o'clock.

The First Congregationalists will present their program on the Diamond Saturday evening, December 21. John M. Evans will direct the singing, while Mrs. John M. Evans will serve as accompanist.

The new pipe organ that has been completely installed adds to the beauty of the sanctuary. The date for dedication of the musical instrument has not been set.

Missouri Minister Will Address City Youth For Christ

Rev. And Mrs. D. W. Waltermann
Of Springfield, Mo., Will Sing And Speak Tonight

Another outstanding program has been arranged for this evening at the New Castle Youth for Christ rally in the First Baptist church, North at East street, at 8 o'clock, with Rev. and Mrs. D. W. Waltermann of Springfield, Mo., will appear to sing, play and speak before the youth audience.

Rev. and Mrs. Waltermann, who are on a tour of the eastern states, are representing their denomination, the Assemblies of God, in a special work. Both sing, and Mrs. Waltermann is heard on the marimba. Accompanying them will be their son Paul, aged five, who will sing during the program.

Youth for Christ Ensemble, which is a feature of the meetings each week, will be heard this evening, with Miss Mary Alken directing the singers. Rose Bender will preside at the piano.

Decision is expected to be forthcoming at this meeting as to whether the youth group will return to the First Methodist church, North Jefferson street, or remain in the First Baptist church.

Rev. Paul Wood of East Liverpool, O., has been engaged as the speaker for Saturday evening, December 21. The youth home from the various Bible schools of the country are expected to present a special program on December 28.

January 22 Set For Mine Workers Virginia Hearings

RICHMOND, Va., Dec. 14.—(INS)—The Virginia State Corporation commission on Friday denied the motion of United Mine Workers attorneys to dismiss charges that the union has "sold" membership in violation of state securities law.

The three-man commission set January 22 as the date to begin hearings into the charges. In denying the efforts of UMW attorneys to have the case thrown out, Commission Chairman L. McCarthy Downs stated that he and his associates "are of the view that we should hear evidence to properly dispose of the case."

Prior to the commission's ruling, its attorney, Blake T. Newton, argued that a prima facie case had been shown which warranted a hearing to obtain evidence.

Gordon B. Ambler, attorney for the union, declared that in view of Newton's position, "I feel that the state has intervened" in the case. Ambler observed, "Mr. Newton's entire argument has been directed against the defense."

The January 22 hearing day was selected after the commission was reminded that the Federal Supreme Court case on the contempt conviction against John L. Lewis and the UMW would be heard on January 14 and that the Union's counsel would be engaged there at that time.

Color Television Needs Long Test

WASHINGTON, Dec. 14.—(INS)—The Radio Corporation of America contended today that color television should be tested for at least four more years before it is offered to the American public.

RCA testified before the Federal Communications commission in opposition to a petition by the Columbia Broadcasting system for commercial operation of color television stations.

Ray D. Kell, RCA television expert, told the FCC that "we have a clear concept of the research and development" needed to solve problems confronting the color television industry. He added:

"We estimate that the work necessary, the field testing and the industry consideration for color television will require a minimum of four to five years. Until all this has been done, standards for color television cannot be logically adopted."

The FCC, meanwhile, hoped to complete today its opening hearings on the RCA petition. The nation's leading television station operators and equipment manufacturers have testified at the hearing, which opened last Monday.

Ministers To Hear Dr. R. F. Galbreath

'Christian Education' To Be Subject Of Former President Of Westminster College

Dr. Robert F. Galbreath, interim pastor of the First Presbyterian church and former president of Westminster college, will be the speaker Monday morning at 10 o'clock during the regular meeting of the New Castle Ministerial Association in the First Presbyterian church, North Jefferson at Falls street.

"Christian Education" is the subject that Dr. Galbreath has chosen for his discourse before the ministers. Rev. Edward Leppaluto, pastor of the Finnish Lutheran church, will be in charge of the period of devotion, with Rev. A. E. Simon, president, conducting the business.

Senator Reports Sugar Pleas Are Given Authorities

Whether or not New Castle and Lawrence County housewives will get some extra sugar for Christmas is the $64 dollar question but at least their requests for some action in the matter of validating an extra sugar stamp is getting some attention from Washington.

On Friday 122 telegrams came into New Castle from United States Senator Francis J. Myers to housewives who had written or wired him urging some action.

Nothing definite was promised by Senator Myers, probably nothing definite could be promised by him, but at least he gave the housewives the courtesy of a telegraphic answer and the promise that he was placing the matter before the proper officials in Washington.

DEATH SENTENCE WILL BE IMPOSED

MINEOLA, N. Y., Dec. 14.—(INS)—A sentence of death in the electric chair will be imposed Wednesday on Ward Beecher Caraway, 23-year-old Negro butler for the murder of Mrs. Marjory Logan, Flower Hill, L. I., society matron. Caraway was found guilty of murder in the first degree by a male jury after deliberating five hours last night. The verdict carries a mandatory death sentence.

The Spirit of Service

TELEPHONE LINEMEN braving blizzards to keep lines up and calls moving... telephone girls refusing to leave their switchboards even while floods mount and fires rage... former telephone employees coming back to work of their own accord to help out in a crisis...

All this is a familiar story to the public.

To telephone people, it's tradition.

It's the spirit of service that makes telephone people think first and act first in the interests of the public.

It's a devotion to duty that no thing and no one can possibly destroy.

It's loyalty to a cause that is greater than those who teach it, those who learn it, those who feel it, and those who stand by it.

For telephone people, from fledglings to old-timers, know what telephone service is and what it means and what it must continue to be.

They know that a single telephone call can be the difference between life and death, joy and sorrow, success and failure, victory and defeat.

They know that nothing must stop telephone calls from going through.

Nothing!

You count on telephone people. You always have. You always can.

They know their obligation. They live it. It's a part of their very fibre. It's second nature to them. It's the thing that keeps telephone service going against any obstacles. It's the thing that seems to produce miracles of service when miracles are needed.

It's the thing that assures telephone service for the people of Pennsylvania... come what may.

Surplus Material Brings 20 Cents On Dollar For U.S.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 14.—(INS)—War Assets Administrator Robert M. Littlejohn, told the House Surplus Property committee Friday the agency is averaging a net return to the government of 20 cents on the dollar for all items sold.

Littlejohn appeared before the committee at its final session to sum up the accomplishment of the WAA under his direction. He declared surplus disposal operations were at present on a "very satisfactory basis."

At the present rate of progress, Littlejohn said, he expected the agency could be reduced to a small bureau to handle real property leases and be transferred to another agency by June 30, 1942.

To expedite the process of winding up his agency Littlejohn recommended that legislation be enacted without delay to establish the size of the armed forces so that they could be able to determine what might be declared surplus. In addition, he urged repeal of legislation establishing veterans priorities on all items of personal property.

Five Of Returning Miners Lose Lives

JOHNSTOWN, Pa., Dec. 14.—(INS)—Five coal mine fatalities have been recorded in Cambria and adjacent counties in the five days since ending the bituminous strike. Cambria County Coroner's office reported Friday the death of Frederick Lytle, 43, St. Benedict. He died at a Spangler hospital of injuries suffered in a fall of roof coal at the Peale, Peacock and Kerr Co. mine at Spangler.

Tuesday two Somerset county miners were injured fatally and another miner was killed in Indiana county. The fourth fatality occurred Thursday in Cambria county.

CALL CONFERENCE ON HOTEL FIRES

BOSTON, Dec. 14.—(INS)—Paul Enright, general manager of the National Fire Protection Association, announced today a national conference has been called for January 16 in Philadelphia to consider protection of the nation's hotels against fire.

At the national conference in January the leading fire authorities of North America will examine the Wincoff hotel disaster. From the lessons gained they will lay out strategy to defeat needless fires.

Erroneous Report On Plane Crackup

PARIS, Dec. 14.—(INS)—An erroneous report that another United States two-engine army plane had crashed in France was circulated in Paris Friday.

The French Press agency originally quoted a report from an American aviator in Marseille that the ship had cracked up at a point some 30 miles north of Aix-en-Provence.

Later, however, the agency said the aviator had mistaken the bulk of a war-time plane crash for a new accident.

Ceramic tile was one of the most widely used flooring materials in medieval churches.

World Peace Race Against Time Element

New Instruments Of Death
May Be Used Before
Peace Attained
Scientist Says

VANNEVAR BUSH DISCUSSES ISSUE

WASHINGTON, Dec. 14.—(INS)—Dr. Vannevar Bush said Friday there is a "serious question" of whether there is time to convert the world to peace before new instruments of death science has created are used again.

Dr. Bush, president of Carnegie Institute, told the first annual meeting of the organization held since 1940 that the atomic bomb and other scientific weapons promise to "render some form of world unity inevitable."

"The principal question is whether there will be time enough—whether, in short, there must be another demonstration of the power of applied science to destroy before mankind as a whole recognizes that a new approach toward international functioning is demanded."

"This is a serious question," he added that he expects civilization to survive saying:

"But it is doubtful whether civilization will commit suicide knowing it is doing so, and because of science the race between the power of weapons and the power of understanding is not altogether unbalanced."

Federal Support
Dr. Bush said federal support of research now is essential in the national interest, but said he saw dangers that only careful legislation could avoid. He listed:

"Danger of federal domination of universities, 'injurious dictation' to science by laymen in control of funds, 'undue stress' on military aspects of science, 'over-emphasis on applied science,' and 'possibility that the cultural significance of science might be obscured by immediate spectacular facts such as the release of atomic energy.'"

Experts revealed research activities of the year, including:

"History: Excavation of an ancient Mayan tomb in Guatemala, some twelve centuries old. It contained the remains of 'apparently two important individuals, with whom had been buried several young people, probably sacrificed at the time of the funeral.' Found were unusually fine jade ornaments, and some 50 fine pottery vessels of a period from which no complete vessel ever had been found previously. The work was done by Carnegie Archaeologist, Ledyard Smith."

Culture Evidence

In Honduras, Dr. John M. Long-year found flint chips and charcoal in strata underlying the deepest pottery bearing soil, indicating, the institution said, possibility of a pre-ceramic culture not heretofore discovered in Central America.

Terrestrial Magnetism
Harry W. Wells, physicist, told of discovery, by use of a new motion picture technique, of intense storms several hundred miles above the earth's surface. They are not winds, but electrical disturbances due to "ultraviolet light and charged particles from the sun. They influence the magnetic field, cause large electrical currents to flow in the earth's surface, and control 'radio weather.'"

Quartz Crystals

Geophysicist, Dr. Earl Ingerson displayed quartz crystals with inner cavities partially filled with water. He said it helped estimate the temperature at which rocks were formed.

Astronomy
Advances in atomic physics touched off new problems, one dealing with the source of energy that causes sun and stars to shine. Dr. E. S. Bowen, director of Carnegie's Wilson observatory at Pasadena, Calif., said the giant 200-inch telescope at the California Institute of Technology observatory at Palomar is scheduled for completion late next year.

TELEPHONE CALL

WARNS HYDE PARK ARCH IN DANGER

LONDON, Dec. 14.—(INS)—A mysterious caller telephoned Scotland Yard today and warned that the offices of the famous police agency and the historic marble arch in Hyde Park were to be blown up.

Earlier today police emergency squads rushed to the Goodge street underground station when the yard received a telephone warning that the Jewish Stern gang planned to blow it up.

Scotland Yard later came to the belief that the latter threat was the work of a crank.

FOURTEEN MILLIONS

SOUGHT BY BAPTISTS

COLUMBUS, O., Dec. 14.—(INS)—Baptist leaders in session at the Northern Baptist Convention General Council meeting for the World Mission Crusade, report that more than eight million dollars toward their 14 million dollar goal in the World Mission Crusade has been received.

The anticipated goal is expected to be reached by April 30, 1947, with council members from all sections of the Northern Convention area jubilant over the crusade reports.

CARE OF STORAGE BATTERIES

URGENT

Because of shortage of storage batteries, increased emphasis needs to be placed on care of those now in service.

Keep the battery solution at proper level. Any part of the storage battery plate not covered by solution is ruined in a few hours. If filled too high, it will "boil over" as gas forms in the solution while charging.

Adjust the generator charging rate to balance with the battery load. Keep the battery charged between 1.275 and 1.225.

Keep the engine "tuned up" to permit easy starting and to avoid strains on the battery. Use oil of grade conforming to seasonal temperature. Do not let a battery stand idle. If equipment with batteries is not in constant use, remove and store the battery, giving it a "trickle" charge every 30 days.

Even batteries in use can be made to last longer if they are "cycled" every 90 days—completely discharged at a 5-ampere rate and then recharged to 1.275 or 6 1/2 volts.

FIFTY U. S. ARMY

AWOLs ROUNDED

UP IN MANILA

MANILA, Dec. 14.—(INS)—Army authorities announced today that 50 known U. S. Army AWOLs and five escapees from U. S. Military stockades were among 237 soldiers rounded up in Manila in a 24-hour period ending last night.

Navy officials also announced that 34 U. S. Navy AWOLs were picked up in the Navy's phase of the manhunt.

The public relations officer of Army forces in the western Pacific disclosed that the roundup was carried out because both U. S. Army and Manila police authorities were concerned over Manila's crime wave.

GAMBLING SHIP

CAN RESUME

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 14.—(INS)—The way was clear today for "Admiral" Tony Romero to resume gambling ship operations free of interference from the sovereign state of California.

Romero and four associates were acquitted of charges that they conspired to violate state laws which prohibit the solicitation of patronage for gambling establishments.

FALL FROM TRUCK FATAL

CARLSLE, Pa., Dec. 14.—(INS)—A fall from a moving truck during an attack of illness today had proved fatal to James Diven, 20, of Mt. Holly Springs.

He died last night in the Carlisle hospital of a fracture skull sustained when he fell headlong over the side of the vehicle traveling between his home and Boiling Springs.

Woodring Declares Truman Is Choice For '48 Nomination

WASHINGTON, Dec. 14.—(INS)—Harry H. Woodring, former secretary of war under the late President Roosevelt, on Friday said flatly that President Truman will be the Democrat party's choice for re-election in 1948.

Woodring, who ran for governor in Kansas but was defeated in the November election, called on the president at the White House today.

He was optimistic about a Democratic victory in 1948.

"The Republicans have nothing to offer more than a synthetic copy of the Democratic party's platform. They will never knock out the gains made by the Democrats during the past several years except to remove a minor irritation here and there. They have nothing to offer beyond a copy of the Democratic administration's program."

Some legislators have admitted that bickering over major issues, a state soldiers' bonus and increased educational appropriations, may prove an obstacle to a speedy meeting. In past years the session usually extended into May or June. The 1945 meeting ended May 7. The longest meeting in recent times was the 1941 session which lasted 196 days, adjourning July 15. After the session adjourns next year, the governor will have 30 days in which to approve or veto legislation.

The Pennsylvania State Chamber of Commerce has announced the appointment of John H. Moody, Harrisburg attorney, as manager of its legislative service bureau. Moody succeeded Earle E. Remm, who resigned December 2 after 12 years' service.

The State American Legion has recommended to Attorney General James H. Duff, governor-elect, the appointment of Brig. Gen. Frank A. Weber, of Beaver Falls, as state adjutant general. Weber is present deputy adjutant general. Robert M. Vail, of Kingston, was expected to retire as head of the military affairs department at the end of Gov. Edward Martin's administration on January 21. Vail is 71. The post pays $10,000 a year.

As Governor Martin's four-year term draws to a close there has been great scrambling by some members of his cabinet to gain similar posts in the official family of Governor-Elect Duff. According to reports a large number of cabinet members would like to remain in state service. On the other hand, a few cabinet officers reportedly plan to return to private life.

The state justice department has ruled that employees of the emergency area college program were required to join the public school employees' retirement system. An opinion, requested by superintendent of public instruction Francis B. Haas, said that joining the retirement system was mandatory for employees under 62 years of age "who receive their full compensation for such services from commonwealth funds."

The department also ruled that full-time employees were subject to all provisions of the retirement act, but that teachers between 62 and 70 were not required to contribute or become active members of the association while persons over 70 were ineligible to make contributions or receive credits for retirement benefits.

"Too often we take our railroads for granted," Secretary of Internal Affairs William S. Livenood, Jr., has written in the department's monthly bulletin. "Without them we would have lost the civil war and we could not have fought World War II. The fact that, under private management, they came through that conflict magnificently and ready to meet unprecedented post-war needs despite heavy handicaps, whereas government operation nearly ruined them, is a record of achievement for private enterprise in industry."

Eighteen Million Received Toward Restoration Fund

In the second major report on the progress of the nationwide Presbyterian church campaign for a $25,000,000 Restoration Fund, Rev. Charles E. Lamale, ministerial chairman of Western Pennsylvania, announced today that $18,191,271 or 67.4 per cent of the goal had been realized, with 1945 out of $500 churches over the top on their quota.

The Restoration Fund campaign, to finance a program of postwar repair and strengthening of churches and church agencies in Europe, Asia and in this country, will extend until May, 1948. A deputation has recently returned from the Philippines where they surveyed the damage done to the churches there and out of 400 they reported 153 completely destroyed.

Seven and a quarter millions of the fund is being designed for rehabilitation, rebuilding and replacement of equipment in Asia.

Twenty-Two Killed
In Plane Crash

TOKYO, Dec. 14.—(INS)—Names of 22 persons killed in the crash of a C-46 troop transport plane near Osaka Tuesday were released today by the U. S. Fifth Air Force.

The dead included one woman identified as Miss Fay Givelman of Brooklyn, N. Y.

Other victims included: T-Sgt. Thomas Yamazaki, Cleveland, O.; T-Sgt. Daniel F. Ota, address unknown; Cpl. Leonard A. Crumrine, Lafayette, O.; Warner I. Weil, Buffalo, N. Y.; and Sgt. Robert L. Hutchinson, Wheeling, W. Va.

Charles E. Miller, Philadelphia, a civilian employee of the Philco Radio Corp., survived the crash. He was pulled from the wreckage by a Japanese who was working in a nearby paddy field and is expected to recover.

OTHER NEWS OF
STATE CAPITAL

HARRISBURG, Dec. 14.—(INS)—While Republican leaders have expressed hopes for a short session of the 1947 General Assembly, some legislators have predicted the meeting may last five months because of "pressing problems." Republican State Chairman M. Harvey Taylor summed up the sentiment of the average assemblyman when he said "everyone wants a short, businesslike session, straight to the point."

At a caucus of GOP house members at Harrisburg December 7 hopes for a three-month session were expressed.

Some legislators have admitted that bickering over major issues, a state soldiers' bonus and increased educational appropriations, may prove an obstacle to a speedy meeting. In past years the session usually extended into May or June. The 1945 meeting ended May 7. The longest meeting in recent times was the 1941 session which lasted 196 days, adjourning July 15. Friday, Thirteenth Members Have Fine Dinner Friday Eve

Orville Potter Presides As Chairman At Banquet In The Castleton

With its membership constantly growing, the Friday, the Thirteenth Club, composed of past commanders of the Veterans of Foreign Wars and the American Legion, had its membership out in full strength for the customary dinner meeting, which took place in the Coral Room of the Castleton, Friday evening.

The event proved one of the finest parties the club has had since its organization in 1934. A history was presented last night, showing that the first meeting took place on April 13, 1934, with James A. Bell, Past Commander of Post 522, V. F. W. presiding, and that it has had regular meetings since that date, whenever Friday falls on the 13th of the month.

Register and Recorder Orville Potter served as chairman at last night's meeting, and an informal program was presented, which proved most enjoyable. Billy Earl presided at the piano, and aided Ivor V. Davis in the pep music of the evening, when old time favorites of the days of '17 and '18 were rendered. Earl, World War Two veteran, was voted an honorary membership in the organization.

R. L. Boyd substituted for co-chairman, Judge W. W. Braham and aided Chairman Potter in carrying two luscious turkeys, and after the gang had decimated the birds, all that was left were the frames.

Dr. R. C. Lutz, who was absent from the meetings held during the war, when he was in service, was called upon for remarks, and Jimmy Fletcher, presented a skit, which hit the spot.

Two new members were initiated last night, they being Past Commanders Leon A. Drumm and Joseph DeRobbio, of the American Legion.

The club did not forget two of their members who were unable to be present last night, being laid up because of illness and injuries, they being Tom McNicholas and Joe Mesall, each of whom was sent a nice basket of fruit. The club took up enough money in a collection to provide four copies of Time magazine for the men at Deshon hospital.

John L. Williams was elected chairman of the only 1947 meeting, which will take place at R. L. Boyd's summer cottage in Chapin road.

Hammer Victim

THE DEATH of Mrs. Florence McAllister, above, 29-year-old estranged wife of a veteran, who was found choked and beaten to death by a hammer in a bedroom of her family home at Burtonsville, Md., remains a mystery as police search the east for five men who may shed light on the slaying. Crew Abandons Sinking Steamer

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 14.—(INS)—The Chinese freighter Hwa Tung, in near-sinking condition about 375 miles southwest of San Pedro, was abandoned by her crew at 5 a. m. today, Coast Guard officials reported.

The ship was down by the head, with the stern out of the water, but there still was hope the ship might be salvaged, according to the report.

Eighteen of the American crew were taken aboard the Cruiser Atlanta, which was en route to the harbor. The captain and nine other seamen were taken aboard the destroyer escort Seiberline which was standing by.

Four other craft were en route to the Hwa Tung. They are the Coast Guard cutters Parus from San Francisco, a tug from San Diego and the private salvage tug Viking.

The Hwa Tung carried 6,000 tons of phosphate and was bound for Keelung, China, from the East Coast. She left San Pedro Monday and sprang a leak Thursday night.

Audience Likes Union High Play

Junior-Senior Production Of 'Seventeen' Goes Over Big On Friday Evening

Playing to a full house, the cast of juniors and seniors who presented Booth Tarkington's 'Seventeen' on the Union High school stage Friday evening made a definite hit with their audience.

The actors played their parts well, although Leona Heckart, in the role of the kid sister, Janie Baxter, came near stealing the show. Bill Robinson was delightful as Willie, especially in the second act debate over whether he was or was not going to have an evening suit. Both Sallie Lou Majestic and Ted Radabaugh, as Mrs. Baxter and Mr. Baxter, did a good job of portraying parents.

Others in the well-chosen cast were: Glenn Jean Stephens, Bob Kirby, Ray Conti, Pauline Curtis, Elizabeth Cooper, Bob Rudek, Jack Peterson, Glenn Hoover, Gayle Kerr and Pat Bartlett.

Besides the cast, those who helped to make the performance a success were Mrs. John King, who was presented with a corsage for her work as director; Robert Cowher, who was in charge of stage decoration; Miss Betty Robinson, whose orchestra played before and between the acts of the comedy; Miss Wilda Krause, who was in charge of publicity; Miss Mary Klisick, in charge of programs; Miss Pander, in charge of art poster, and Miss Elma Robinson, in charge of tickets.

Between the last two acts Gladys Gittie sang a solo, "Let My Song Fill Your Heart."

Working with Mr. Cowher on the stage committee were: Tom Wallace, Jesse Jones, Carl Dominick, Bob Jackson, Bob Stoughton and Frank Jaworski.

Girl Scout Leaders Have Holiday Party

Twenty-Five Troop Leaders Meet In Trinity Church For Affair Friday Evening

Girl Scout Leaders' Association held its annual Christmas party Friday evening in the recreation rooms of the Trinity Episcopal church.

Following a brief business meeting, with Miss Maxine Bigley in charge, an investiture service was held at which the leaders of intermediate and Brownie troops were introduced formally into the Girl Scout organization. Miss Bigley and Mrs. C. M. Booher conducted this service.

The balance of the evening was spent with the singing of Christmas carols and playing games. Luncheon was served to 25 persons at a cleverly decorated table. Mrs. Thomas A. Clark was a guest for the party.

On the committees in charge of the affair were: Decorations, Mrs. Wesley Tegsee, Mrs. George Lewis, Mrs. John Bender and Mrs. Everett Perkins; refreshments, Mrs. Russell Cartwright, Mrs. Alice Welcher, and Mrs. J. H. E. McKenzie; entertainment, Mrs. Walter Jessell and Miss Laura Snider.

ATTENDANTS' GIFTS
Question: Please give me some information on bridal attendants' gifts—what should they be and when should they be presented?

Answer: The bridesmaids and the maid-of-honor receive gifts from the bride at a luncheon or tea some time before the wedding. If the family is wealthy, these may be gifts of jewelry—wrist watches, expensive clips, pins or gold compacts. Sometimes, (that I not offend) these gifts are accessories for the bride's wedding ensemble, such as hats, gloves, etc. A bride of moderate means may choose costume jewelry. All gifts should be of equal value.

Question: When a girl and a man have met at a friend's home, is it the girl's privilege to ask him to call upon her or should this suggestion come from the man?

Answer: The man usually asks for permission to call on the girl, but there are times when the girl might diplomatically make the suggestion. For instance, if he has taken her to a party at a blind date or has escorted her home from a friend's home, she may—if she thinks he will welcome the suggestion—ask him to call her sometime. She should be sure that he has shown sufficient interest to indicate that he would welcome the invitation. If he takes no advantage of her invitation, she should not give him a second chance.

Question: An acquaintance of mine has sent me a formal invitation to her wedding—both the reception and the ceremony. I can not go. How must I word my refusal? I do not wish to send a stiff, formal note. May I write her a friendly letter explaining the circumstances?

Answer: No matter how intimate your acquaintance, you must send her a formal note written in the third person. You may write her a separate note later or explain verbally later, but the formal refusal must be sent to her parents, who sent the invitation. And, of course, you must send her a gift despite the fact that you will not go to her wedding.

Present your problems to Miss Markel who will promptly mail personal replies to questions from readers including stamped, self-addressed envelopes.

GROVE CITY SEEKS 200 BLOOD DONORS

GROVE CITY, Pa., Dec. 14.—Seeking to enroll a minimum of 200 potential blood donors available for transfusions in case of emergency, a movement launched by the community service committee of the Rotary club is meeting an enthusiastic response. Before public announcement was made, 26 persons, including one woman whose blood is of the universal type, were enrolled.

A volunteer committee, headed by Mrs. J. C. Penmar and Mrs. S. L. Coleman, whose wartime work for the Red Cross Blood Bank resulted in the donation of 2,730 pints of blood, is assisting in the program.

Teen-Age Youths Confess Slaying Woman In Park

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 14.—(INS)—The brutal "hibiscus" murder of a 32-year-old seamstress in Los Angeles' Lincoln park last Tuesday was solved today with the confessions of four teen-age youths naming the leaders of their group as the actual slayer.

All five members of the self-styled "Happy Valley Gang," were held on suspicion of murder. Police said that four of the boys had told of participation in the slaying of Mrs. Naomi Tufts Cook, mother of three children. Her battered body was found Wednesday morning in a clump of hibiscus bushes.

The four, Vincent W. Arias, 18; Gilbert M. Martinez, 17; Benjamin (Jesse James) Valenzuela, 16; and Leandro Lujan, 15, according to police, named their leader, Ephraim (Babyface) Olivas, 18, as the actual slayer. Olivas denied any connection with the case.

Police quoted Martinez as giving this account of the murder: "We were in a cafe and decided to go to the park and rob someone. We saw the woman sleeping. She screamed and we all slapped her around. Then 'Babyface' hit her with something and knocked her out, so we all ran."

COLLEGE STUDENTS TOUR CITY BUILDING

Students in a journalism class, Westminster college, today visited city hall for the purpose of obtaining knowledge as to how third class cities operate.

They were escorted by Edna Hopkins Reimold through the various offices during which she explained the function of the employees and departments with which they were affiliated.

Later they were taken to police headquarters where Carolyn Black and police sergeants explained the method of arrest, how defendants are docketed and how police court is conducted.

'Y' Committees Named For 1947

President Boyles Appoints Groups To Handle Functions Of Organization

John P. Boyles, president of the board of directors of the Y.M.C.A., Friday named his committees for the new year. The groups were appointed at a noon meeting in the association building.

Finance: J. Clyde Gillfillan, chairman; John B. Offutt, T. H. Hartman. Membership: Richard E. Rentz, chairman; J. P. Flaherty, J. N. Kerr, John A. Butler, House: R. J. Tully, chairman; John Butler, Fred Wofford. Boys work: J. N. Kerr, chairman; John Butler, George Lyon, Carl Paisley. Physical department: J. P. Flaherty, chairman; Carl Paisley, J. R. McPate. H. C. Drake. Camp: John Offutt, chairman, Richard E. Rentz, J. P. Flaherty, S. H. Rhoads, Dr. Earl P. Henderson. Shenango street branch: J. C. Gillfillan, Richard E. Rentz, Jesse N. Kerr.

THEY ALL MEAN LAKE
It takes a fair vocabulary to describe the landscape in the term used in various parts of Britain. A Glasgow scholar admits. In Scotland a lake is a loch, in Wales a llyn and in Eire a loough, while in the Lake District the word mere and water are mostly used. A small mountain lake is a tarn and in the north a deep lake-like pool is a dub.

PENALTY FITS THE CRIME
Chicago Judge Francis Borrell sentenced John Sabie, 26, who stole 60 cents from a newsboy to a day in jail for each penny.

DR. J. RALPH NEALE TO PREACH SUNDAY AT THIRD CHURCH

Rev. J. Ralph Neale, D. D., of New Wilmington, will preach the sermon at morning service Sunday at 11 o'clock at the Third U. P. church.

Due to the presentation of "The Messiah" Sunday evening at 8:00 o'clock in the First Methodist church, evening service and young people's meeting have been cancelled.

Robbery Scheme Being Worked In Lawrence County

State Police Issue Warning To Rural Residents To Be On Lookout

State police today issued a warning to rural residents to be on the alert for burglars who recently robbed the residence of Christ Dierthorne, Ellwood City, R. D. 1, of an electric toaster, Colt revolver, electric fan and other articles.

According to the State police, the burglars rap on a door. If someone answers they inquire as to whether or not trees need spraying or trimming. If no one answers, they gain admittance with a skeleton key. At least, this has been their practice in eastern Ohio and Mercer county, Pa.

"If anyone comes to your door, appears suspicious, obtain his description, the make and color of his car and also the number on the license plate then telephone 1000," was the advice of the State police.

Ask A Truck Operator
What He Wants This Year

If the family asked him what he wanted he would probably mention a good pipe, some neckties or a retractable cork screw. But ask him what he really wants and ten to one he'll answer, "A Federal Truck".

Of course he's asking for a lot, but he knows he's asking for the best and after all why not ask for the best when you're asking. For he knows by experience that a Federal truck is the last word in transportation quality.

We can't wrap one up in cellophane but we can deliver it for you if you really want to please that truck operator.

Former Teacher Of Class, And Present Teachers Get Gifts

At the home of Mrs. F. W. Guy, 201 East Leasure avenue, members of the M. E. G. auxiliary and the K. J. U. Bible class of the Mahoningtown Presbyterian church assembled for a Christmas party, with a good attendance.

The devotional exercises were conducted by Mrs. Manley Broadus, which included a period of Christmas carol music.

Mrs. James Miller gave a report received from the southern mission field as to box of clothing sent there. Sewing was planned for overseas hospitals. Toys were brought for a collection to be sent to a colored mission in Tennessee.

Mrs. Herman Alexander gave a Christmas story reading.

A delicious lunch was served by the hostesses, Mrs. F. W. Guy, Mrs. Wade Daugherty, Mrs. Arthur C. Brown, Mrs. G. G. Horchler, and Mrs. Honora Goad.

Mrs. James Miller and Mrs. Arthur C. Brown, co-teachers of the class, and Mrs. F. W. Guy, were presented with lovely gifts on behalf of the groups. Mrs. Guy organized the class 36 years ago and was the teacher until two years ago.

Missionary Group With Mrs. K. Walter

At the home of Mrs. Kenneth Walter, 606 West Clayton street, the Women's Missionary society of the Madison Avenue Christian church met for their regular monthly meeting on Friday evening. The devotional period was led by Mrs. E. M. Jones.

Mrs. Howard Snyder was leader of the program. Mrs. Mae Culbertson, Irene Liversage, Mrs. Russell McConnell and Mrs. J. B. Bum-baugh spoke on the subject topic, "Making God's New World Through Consecration." A tasty lunch was served by the hostess, who had Mrs. J. B. Comstock as her aide.

Mrs. Russell McConnell of West Madison avenue will entertain the group at the next meeting Friday evening, January 10.

St. Margaret's Plan New Year's Party

At St. Margaret's hall, North Liberty street, members of St. Margaret's Council No. 74, Sons of Columbus of America, had their regular meeting on Thursday evening. A New Year's party was planned for the evening of Tuesday, December 31, commencing at 8 o'clock, with wives and families as guests. Chairman of arrangements is Andrew Masters.

Plans were discussed regarding a banquet to be given at the opening of the new headquarters of the club. In a contest, the prize was awarded to Jack Waters.

Old-Time Costumes In Fashion Parade At Mt. Jackson High

Probably one of the most unique assembly programs ever given at a high school was that presented at Mt. Jackson high Friday afternoon. Feature of the program was a fashion parade with 55 costumes dating from 1875 to 1930.

Presented by the members of the two literary clubs of the school, the program was directed and arranged by Mrs. Ruth Stunkard and Anna McConaghy. Shirley Gwin and Mary Ann McKee at the piano, furnished background music, for the various numbers, with narration by Chester Brandt.

Opening the fashion parade was a Virginia Reel with the girls wearing dresses dating from 1880. Among the laugh provoking creations was a bathing suit and a gym suit of the 1915 vintage and a "flappers" dress dated about 1926.

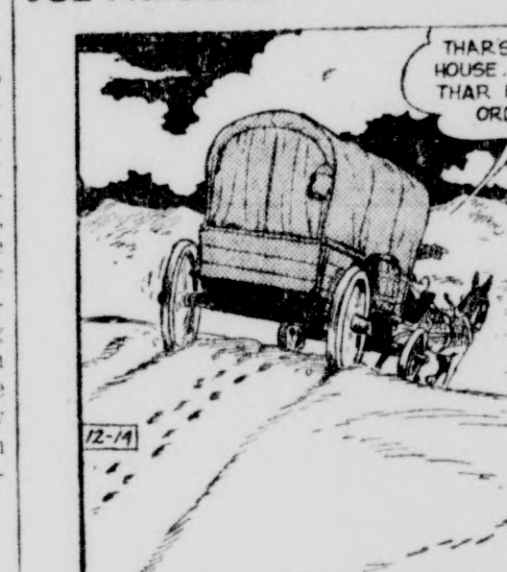

Among the wedding gowns, were some modeled by daughters of the brides who originally wore them.

One of the interesting features of the early part of the program was a skit, School News, by Katherine Bozinski and Alan Anderson.

Travelling Bill Is Not Approved

County Solicitor Refuses Bill For Officials Expenses To State Capital

OTHER NEWS OF COURT HOUSE

Under a ruling of County Solicitor William McElwee, Jr., expenses for official travelling are going to be hard to get in the future. A bill for $30.85 presented by Prothonotary and Clerk of Courts John A. Edgar was refused upon the grounds that it was not in connection with the operation of his office.

The law provides that the county shall reimburse officials for travelling expenses incurred in the operation of their offices and in this case Mr. Edgar went to Harrisburg to attend a conference called for the purpose of unification of fees charged. He felt it was in line with his duties but the commissioners referred the matter to the solicitor. At the present time and for many years, there is no unification of prothonotary or clerk of court fees over the state. What costs $1 in one county might cost five or six in another county. The prothonotaries and clerk of courts want a uniform fee bill put into effect.

DIVORCES GRANTED

Judge John G. Lamoree has granted the following divorces: Jessie A. Bunsie from Earl C. Burnside. Mary J. Anadio from Joseph B. Angelo. John Lee Fowler from Viola Fowler. George Bartle from Betty Bartle. Ruth M. Watkins from Robert W. Watkins. Grace Lucille Zito from James Zito.

New Deal Loses Face In Cleveland Cafes

CLEVELAND—The New Deal is out in Cleveland—so far as cafe owners are concerned.

In 1932 when FDR took office, there wasn't a single "New Deal Cafe" listed in city telephone books. The following year three firms had taken the name.

By 1934, nine establishments were known as "New Deal", and the peak of the name's popularity was reached in 1935-36, when 10 cafes called themselves "New Deal".

In 1937 there were seven establishments; in 1938-39, there were only four. The number dwindled to three in 1940, and two in 1941-42. Telephone books from 1943 through the current issue have listed but one.

However, a visit to this place revealed that even there the name has been disowned. Although the cafe's liquor permits still bear the title, the New Deal signs were removed from the tavern front about 18 months ago.

Keen Interest In Potato Show

HARRISBURG—Since the year 1946 has witnessed the setting up of new record yields of potatoes per acre in Pennsylvania, farmers of the state will view with special interest the several hundred exhibits of tubers to be displayed at the 1947 State Farm Show scheduled here for January 13-17, according to members of the Farm Show Commission.

In addition to adult potato growers, many 4-H club and vocational agriculture school boys will send potato exhibits to the farm show this year. All will compete for premium awards in the various classes established by the Farm Show Commission, including the grand champion ribbon award that will go to the best exhibit of any variety in the show.

Around Hollywood

By JOHN TODD
International News Service Staff Correspondent

HOLLYWOOD, Dec. 14.—(INS)—Hollywood is beginning to look longingly again at the land of the lei.

When Skipper Bogart, who generally sails no further west than Catalina island, announced he was reconquering his boat for next summer's race to Honolulu, your reporter decided he'd better do a lot of checking around town.

Bogey may meet a lot of his pals when he lands.

George Brent definitely has put his 65-foot schooner "South Wind" in this first renewal of the race since the end of the war. Errol Flynn may be another entrant in the race after he returns from his cruise to France, but Dick Powell, the fourth of Hollywood's famous yachtsmen is out, unless Bogey or George can prevail on him to come along for the ride.

Bogey's sultry wife, Lauren Bacall, won't be a member of the crew of the stars' 55-foot yawl "Santana", but Honolulu is going to get its first look at her in person.

"She'll make the trip across by boat and join me there," Bogey told your reporter.

But, Hollywood's seafaring men aren't the only ones bound for Honolulu during the next year. A dozen others are planning trips to America's "Paradise of the Pacific". First among them will be Mr. and Mrs. Broderick Crawford, who spent their honeymoon in Honolulu after their marriage six years ago.

Brod hopes they'll be able to get away after he completes his role in "Night Unto Night" for Warners. Brod, in demand all over town, is tired and needs a rest.

"Honolulu is the place for it," he said, "as you can understand, having spent our honeymoon there, we have a great fondness for the place. I hope nothing interferes so we can get away early in the year."

Other early 1947 visitors may be Sonny Tufts and his beautiful wife, Barbara.

They hope to get on their way after Sonny finishes "Blaze of Noon" at Paramount. That probably won't be until spring.

"I've been wanting to make this trip for a long time," Sonny said. "I've only two hobbies, diving and fishing. There's no better place for them than Honolulu from what I've been told."

Sonny created a sensation by wearing a complete diver's outfit to a recent Hollywood masquerade.

Two pairs of honeymooners are expected to spend a few weeks in the islands—Bob Hutton, erstwhile swain of Lana Turner, and Cleatus Caldwell, ex-wife of Comedian Ken Murray, and John Sutton and Bobbe Fidler, divorced wife of Jimmy Fidler.

Army Recruiting Faces Big Task Keeping Strength

Must Enlist 40,000 Men Per Month To Maintain Constant Force In Nation

Over one million young Americans have volunteered for the Regular Army since last fall. This is really a great record but it is only the first step in building a one hundred per cent volunteer army.

Nearly half these men will have earned their right to a discharge during the next year—therefore the army must continue to get about 40,000 men every month to maintain the strength needed to fulfill its share of the country's world-wide obligations.

With this in view, the War Department realizes that the recruiting campaign must be carried on aggressively. In addition, the army needs more than mere numbers, it needs quality. Today's forces must combine knowledge and skill to the highest degree.

Inducements To Join

Principal attractions of the new army include the high pay scale, educational and technical training opportunities; security; a chance to travel; free medical care, food and clothing; automatic promotions and extra pay under the automatic promotion system and over seas service.

Recruits may enlist for 1½, 2 or three years, and men in the army with six months service may enlist for one year. Men enlisting for three years may choose their branch of the service.

New Pay Scale
Pay increases ranging from 19 to 50 per cent were provided in the new pay scale.

These payments run from private—$75 per month to master or first sergeant, $165. Besides, the soldier's pay is greatly increased by the value of food, clothing and services that he receives free of charge.

Extensive sulphur deposits in the states of Texas and Louisiana are covered with quicksand and cannot be mined by ordinary methods.

FUNERAL SHIPS TO BRING BACK AMERICAN DEAD

INDIANAPOLIS, Dec. 14.—Special funeral ships will carry America's "homing" pilgrims of the dead" from European battle theaters to New York City for eventual transfer to their home burial plots the American Legion announced.

Joseph Rabinovich, secretary of the Legion's national graves registration and memorial committee, said seven cities, besides New York will serve as the main transfer points for bodies brought from Europe, Africa and the Mediterranean.

"The Legion estimates that approximately 30 per cent of the more than 300,000 American dead overseas will be brought home," Rabinovich said.

The cities to which the bodies will be shipped include Chicago, Kansas City, Mo.; Memphis, Tenn.; Atlanta, Ga.; Columbus, O.; Philadelphia and Schenectady, N. Y.
